Write a dream.

Write a current event.

Write a goal.

Now tell me how these three things are alike.

Tell me how they are different.

How are you attached to all three things?

We forget that all the world is within us, that our opinion will show up in our writing.
Our experiences will appear, even in fiction. We are the character on the paper.
And we are all connected. You cannot separate yourself from others. Nor can you separate your life from God's plans for you.
